

Land Acknowledgement

Before we begin, I would like to start by honouring the land that we are on, which had its beginnings with Canada's Indigenous people thousands of years ago. We acknowledge the land we are meeting on is the traditional territory of many First nations including the Mississaugas of the New Credit, the Anishnabeg, the Chippewas, the Haudenosaunee, and the Wendat peoples and is also now home to many diverse and enduring First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples. We thank the original Indigenous caretakers of this land. We also recognize that Toronto is covered by Treaty 13 with the Mississaugas of the New Credit. We bring this land acknowledgement to a close with All Our Relations, acknowledging the equality of all living beings.

Pronunciations:

Anishnabeg: ah-nish-naw-bek

Haudenosaunee: hoodt-en-oh-show-nee
