

TREE DECORATING AT WEST PARK LTC

In one of our home areas we had just unloaded a box of décor for our tree and within a few minutes we had residents take over and start independently decorating the tree. It was so wonderful to see them come together as friends and work on making the tree to their liking. They were very proud to show it off after and bring their co-residents around to let them see all their hard work.